

Krystal Meyers, The Situation

She's finding love in the back of a car when is it too late
Have they gone too far
She's having trouble drawing the line
But she knows she wants to feel beautiful

She struggles finding self-respect
She'll wake up feeling regret
Her purity's been compromised
But she knows she wants to feel beautiful

A promise made to treasure
You don't have to give it away
Falling for the pressure
You can't mend a vow when it breaks
Explain your hesitation
Jesus can be your escape
Don't taint the situation
This love was made to wait

He's living life out on the edge
Gotta make a move
Move it onto the bed
Temptation whispers in his head
Believe the lie
Suck it up and be a man

He'll trade her heart
For a trophy
Put it on the shelf
So his friends can see
He has what it takes to get what he wants
Tonight's the night
Suck it up and be a man

What's wrong?
I can see the fear behind your eyes
You're scared
You might walk away unsatisfied
God's love
Is the only love to fill the void
He's reachin' out
Just turn around
And hold on
