

Krzysztof Kreft, 5:45

1. I love this moon tonight
I hope you're not asleep
And you see how beautiful it is
I'm sitting by the window with my cat
Still waiting till I see your car

This chapter has ended
I can't pretend
This life isn't good and fine
It's not at all
You are in your home
But I could be there with you
For me, for you

Ref: it's 5:45 and night still dying young
It's 5:45 how long you can drive
I'll carry you home

2. This story hasn't ended
You were with your friends
Another night with my phone right next to me
On a pillow for you
Do you know the right words?

I don't even know if you know
That you're great at pretending
Hiding your need, hiding your fears
