

Krzysztof Kreft, Are You Ready

Only when you need them to
Script is always the same
You make them leave with no regrets

You can't have people around you
Only when you want to talk
About your day and who you sleeping with

Ref: The day is finally over
Are you ready to face the truth?
Now you can't have me beside you
Only when you want me to be

2. You don't have my time to ask
How I feel with it

I send you wishes in your birthday
But you didn't do it the same for me
So why I was still waiting to?

Ref: The day is finally over...

Bridge: It was my turn to show you some places
Where I'm stronger than you
You were looking for the weakest
And you were drag me down
But i'm here waveing to you

The day is finally over
Are you ready to face the truth?
Now you have my word
When i'd say I don't need you too
