

Kula Shaker, Light Of The Day

hmmm...

Will my love, will my love be unsolved?

Still as I wander, though I'm nearly done

I can see, I can see I'm alone

Time understanding the seeds that I've sown

Understanding the seeds that I've sown

I could see by the light of the day that has gone, oh oh

I could see by the light of the day that has gone

Thinking of days that I whittled away, now they're gone, gone, oh oh

What did I find was there?

Gone, gone, oh oh, now will my heart find where?

hmmm...

I can see by the light of the day that has gone.
