

Kultiration, Saraswati

I see white wings and bright light, must be Saraswati
moving in and through in every thought of this creation abundant is the praise of the Knowledge you bring, Saraswati
because each and every one who moves so gracefully and expresses one self so freely are blessed with inspiration of you Saraswati
I surrender to your light because more love, more life will shine when we stop the internal fight sweet is the sound, oh Saraswati
let it rescue me one more time, Yes, let me hear that sweet sound

Let me hear that sweet sound of culture
Let me hear that sweet sound of freedom
Let me hear that sweet sound forever

Its depth can only deepen

All of creation comes from thee Good vibes, Universally
All in one heart, truly spiritually
All that I am I offer myself to thee

The light you bring removes the darkness from within
