

Kurhaus, From Gainesville To Hamburg

whenever i could see no dawn you brought me through the night whenever i lost my path you put me back on track you kept me from resigning whenever i was about to do something stupid there were your three chords to save me i'd like to say thank you for the tears to dried i'd like to say thank you for making me cry