

Kurhaus, Hate Decision

what you call life
is never ending dying
you fear death
but its your redemption you sold yourself to a system based on greed your not my friend i want to see you bleed now so i decide to hate you your worlds a grave your life means death but i want to live
i still believe if you ever believed in life then you have stopped if you ever had dreams seems like you gave em up now
cant take back my hate decision cant take it back, wont take it back your suburban fascism makes me wanna smash your face i feel my head explode why are you so fucking stupid?
