

Kurt Elling, RESOLUTION BY J. COLTRANE

God - king above all other gods - lead us now, so we can walk wherein the prophets said that we would trod.

Buddha - tell a sutra like a spell - teach us well to answer silence with the calling of bells.

Allah - bring us to a good alarm - subjugate our wills to answer you like a mighty arm.

Elohim is a pillar of light in the dark and leading all his people to light (for He's the king of the fire).

He brings the fire into everything that's living on earth, in the sun, in the stars.

Take a spark of it - deep within you - put it to the test - it will do the rest - I confess - It will be like climbing up Mount Everest - I can't express the view from there - but it's for you to follow through.

Lama - show the Power's bright array - bless the climb, and settle peace upon the universe's dark

And Jesus - remember every promise made - Present yourself in the middle of the prayers that we

Vishnu - preserve us all along the way - Keep us clear of the final thunderbolt of the judgement day

Hear me - Hear what I - what I ask for today - Fathers.

Way off at the far left-hand shelf of the world - up in a house right on the edge of everything - where the digging the sound of passing everything away into the secret of eternity's pivot dance breaking down crashing doorways - bashing through dreamplace - smash, unleash, efface - everything to th
