

Kurt Nilsen, All I Have to Offer

Hey!

What is it with you today?

You know you shine

You know you glow

Don't drag yourself down

Just listen

To what I have to say

If not tomorrow

You'll soon be on your way

(Chorus)

If this is all you have to offer

I think I'll pass

If this is all you have to show for

You'll never last

Hey.

What if you put old things aside

And say heeey.

It's time to give self pity goodbye.

Cause it feels good

Just knowing you're okay

And not til body

(chorus)

But hey!

I think you need to come down

Seems your mouth got it's own mind

Or maybe it's just me

Cause I love you

But you're ruening my smile

You're like of sad songs

That I've been playing for a while

(Chorus)
