

Kurt Vile, Touched Somethin (Caught A Virus)

Touched somethin', caught a virus
And you know, I know, I think it's killin' me
You might claim I'm no doctor
And don't I know?
Cup runneth over with lifeblood
And then it sprung a leak, it took about a week
And, man, I got a migraine, the glorious pain

Stole three words from Rodney
A man who come before me from Philly liked me
So it's OK
And I'm thinkin' about him today

Touched something, caught a virus
Touched somethin'

Touched somethin', caught a virus
And you know, I know, I think it's killin' me
You might claim I'm no doctor
And don't I know?
Cup runneth over with lifeblood
And then it sprung a leak, it took about a week
And, man, I got a migraine, the glorious pain

Young teen on a skateboard
Blasting "Eat Your Paisley"
Hmm, well, that was me
