

Kutless, In Me

Where were you last night when the party was on?
Where were you when we all went down to the bar?
It seems you have changed from us all
It seems you have changed
You want to know, the differences between us
You want to know, why these things have changed
You've got to know the One who lives in me
He lives in me, in me.
Only seven days ago
I let go of my life yes I gave it all
I let go of all I used to do and I gave it all away
You want to know, the differences between us
You want to know, why these things have changed
You've got to know the One who lives in me
He lives in me, in me.
He lives in me, in me He lives.....
You want to know, the differences between us
You want to know, why these things have changed
You've got to know the One who lives in me
He lives in me, in me.
In me, in me....
