Kutless, Treason

It all starts here with my disgrace I give you my life then I run in haste In this false life something needs to give Tell me a reason why this isn't treason Tell me, tell me I'm wrong I swear I'm back but then it turns out it's only a season So tell me, tell me I'm wrong With my two lips I will praise your name Then I turn around and only curse and blame I give in, strength is thin, adding to my shame Tell me a reason why this isn't treason Tell me, tell me I'm wrong I swear I'm back but then it turns out it's only a season So tell me, tell me I'm wrong Your blood it covered all my sin You changed a traitor into kin In this false life something needs to give Tell me a reason why this isn't treason Tell me, tell me I'm wrong I swear I'm back but then it turns out it's only a season So tell me, tell me I'm wrong.
