Kwabs, Last Stand

War?s over but I soldier on, Still battling the ghost long-gone,

Still struggling to see the signs, Too heavy for a heart like mine, Save me, save me

Keep my heritage to keep me clean, Keep the Devil watching over me, Save me, save me

Last stand before I walk away, Spell bound, I stutter, I pray Realase me! Say you need me!

Still burning from the heat of your touch, Know I shouldn?t But it?s never enough.

Still burning for the heat of the dark, Know I shouldn?t But it?s never enough.

I know I don?t belong, But I?m scared to leave!

Still burning from the heat of your touch, Know I shouldn?t But it?s never enough.

Still burning for the heat of the dark, Know I shouldn?t But it?s never enough.
