

Kwan, Sharks In The Bloody Waters

Surrounded by hatred they seem to misunderstand they don't approve, say we'll be banned but do you really want to live in a world where freedom forever is out of hands

Tonight, we'll rise, and fight to be sharks in the bloody waters

Above their law no surrender, no defeat better believe we're gonna be like

So many obstacles and traps to avoid hold on to our dream, our soul the waiting is done, we triumphed at last they fall forever our lives filled with joy
