

Kyau & Albert, Walk Down

Tonight I feel like a shipwrecked ray of light
That wants to shine within the forest's deepest place
And so I try a cycle dropping sun to cover you
With all the things that make you shine

And when you walk down try to tuch me
I'm waiting for a sign to keep me on the ground
And when you walk down please try to tuch me
I'm waiting for a sign so heal me with your calm

Tonight I feel like a shipwrecked ray of light
That wants to shine within the forest's deepest place
And now it seems that the shattered feeling
Which I blame for all the things disappears without a trace

No matter if I breathe the air that I need
No matter if I'm lost within a million crashin skies...
