Kygo, Imagine Dragons, Born to Be Yours

I know I've given up
A hundred times before
But I know a miracle
Is not something to ignore

You take me for a fool
You take me for a fool

I never knew anybody til' I knew you
I never knew anybody til' I knew you
And I know when it rains, oh, it pours
And I know I was born to be yours

I never knew anybody til' I knew you
I never knew anybody til' I knew you
And I know when it rains, oh, it pours
And I know I was born to be yours

Are you the only one
Lost in the millions?
Or are you my grain of sand
That's blowing in the wind?

I never knew anybody til' I knew you
I never knew anybody til' I knew you
And I know when it rains, oh, it pours
And I know I was born to be yours

I never knew anybody til' I knew you
I never knew anybody til' I knew you
And I know when it rains, oh, it pours
And I know I was born to be yours

I was born to be yours
I was born, born, born, born
I was born to be yours
I was born, born, born
I was born to be yours
I was born, born, born, born
I was born to be yours
Oh-woah

Oh-woah (hey)
Born to be yours
I was born, born, born, born
I was born to be yours
I was born, born, born
I was born to be yours
I was born, born, born, born
I was born to be yours (oh-woah)
I was born
