

Kyle Riabko, Do You Right

We've lived so long in those lovely days
You were there, life was fair in every way
I tend to say some crazy things
It's obvious they're not the words I really mean
Why do you cry?

Are you waiting
For my goodbye?
While I was faking
All of the times
There's no mistaking
No mistaking

Do you feel the way I feel?
What do you need tonight?
There's no better man for you
Baby I can do you right

I have not been myself
To far from your smile
It's time to show and tell
I need to do you right

Used to be so good
Used to be so fine
Baby used to be alright
Mama I can do you
