

Kyle Riabko, Miss Behavin'

You say you're not shy
You gonna show me tonight?
I've been wondering how your body might feel next to mine

I see you in my dreams
With your candy lips and low riding jeans
Are you thinking what I'm thinking, do you know what I mean?

You're looking fine
In the Gucci line
A little tight end
Number 69
Don't you know that you're my favorite?
You love to ride
On the main express
And the way you do it, Momma, ain't like the rest
Miss Behavin

I see you on the floor
You got me wishin for more
I've been wondering how my body might feel underneath yours

Girl, I want you to know
That I want you to know.
I don't want you to stop
I just want you to go
