

Kyle Riabko, Song for Amanda

Let's go back to my place
Open up the bottle of wine
We can move it slow
Yeah, I know you like to take your time
We'll let Miles Davis play us into the mood
And if I'm lucky, I'll steal a kiss from you
I, I need you to know
If you want it, you can have it
There'll be nothing more to say
When I take, when I take your breath away
Let's get on the couch
You can tell me all about your day
Yeah, let me rub your shoulders
Gonna take that stress away
Well you're absolutely gorgeous and I'm lost in the candle light
And I'd do anything to kiss those lips all night
I, I need you to know
If you want it, you can have it
There'll be nothing more to say
When I take, when I take your breath away
Well I'll lay you on the bed and be as sweet as I can
I'll share night with you
We'll take off our clothes and leave th world alone
This is what I'd like to do
Yeah, this is what I need to do
If you want it, you can have it
There'll be nothing more to say
When I take, when I take
If you want it, you can have it
There'll be nothing more to say
When I take, when I take your breath away
