

Kyle Spaulding, Burning

Your hair is beginning to grey...
Your youth is beginning to fade...
Nothing is here for you
No more chances of starting anew
But, everything is wrong...

Burn everything...
It's all burning.
The fire at night
Is blinding our dreams,
Our future unclear
Hope it's not what it seems...

I hope that it's not what it seems-
I don't even know what to believe...

Life is like an obstacle
You must overcome it...
(Overcome it)
And, no one will tell you...
What must be done...

Burn everything...
It's all burning.
The fire at night
Is blinding our dreams,
Our future unclear
Hope it's not what it seems...

I hope that it's not what it seems(to be)...
