

Kylie Rae Harris, Twenty Years From Now

pack a suitcase bring a pillow
it's gonna be a long hard drive

Twenty Years From Now to ... let the highway took you tonight watch you sleeping in the back seat I wonder if you now haw hard I try you desert nothingness and happiness and so do i

Twenty Years From Now
my pray is there somehow you forget my mistake
by proud of choices I made
god, I hope I still...

I hope you know your dad loves you and broke his hear to watch you leave but he can wrestling whit his demon but still have time to for you and me

god, I hope I still...
