

Kymani Marley, One Day

After years of battle, after years of war Its still hard to see, what we're fighting for I can see you're troubles, i can feel you're pain
But from all this fighting, tell me where's change
There gon be love again
There gon be love again
There gon be love again
There gon be love again ... One day

So ...

One day, we will fly
Things and time will change ... yah
don't cry, don't cry ... yahh

rain down on me
rain down on me
rain down on me love
rain down on me
rain down on me
rain down on me love ... yah

When the rain stops pooring
And the wet rug is dry

All thats left is struggle, is just you and i So If you pray for me then i'll pray for you And we will come together, all it takes is two

There gon be love again
There gon be love again
There gon be love again
There gon be love again ... One day

So ...

One day, we will fly
things and time will change ... yah

rain down on me
rain down on me love
rain down on me
rain down on me
rain down on me love ... yah
