{Kyprios}

Hey kid,

You know I'd like to stay and catch up.

You caught me on a bad day,

But, You see me as your eyes are shut as you're risin' up.

Okay. And what I really need to say,

One day we're gonna meet again.

And it will be the same,

'Cause even we aren't here me and my songs say.

(CHORUS)

Every life first the sun and the night falls,

We're all on borrowed time, I'll never say goodbye.

Take your time, Live your life likes it's last call.

Don't wanna see you cry, I'll never say goodbye.

Back when life was easy and innocent,

In a simple world ignorant.

Stealing cigarettes, going to get high and drink some rye.

The again, we're all the same thing in the end.

Butterflies lose their wings and ascend,

So do friends, memories resurrect a new life for the dead.

So any time that you wanna see me.

Raise a glass, reminisce take it easy. Just close your eyes, I'll be right there with your soul inside.

And there's no goodbyes. I wish I had a handkerchief so I could wipe those eyes.

I saw my moms at the fuerl she spoke so nice.

Like "what a great kid";

Don't beleive those lies.

(CHORUS)

Every life first the sun and the night falls,

We're all on borrowed time, I'll never say goodbye.

Take your time, Live your life likes it's last call.

Don't wanna see you cry, I'll never say goodbye.

Don't ever say goodbye, Don't ever say goodbye, never say goodbye.

So kid, don't mourn take your life back.

Carpe Deim and all that.

Really matters today is today see.

The more you live the happier I'll be.

Ya'd better take your time and shine.

Everybody gotta learn sometimes.

That there's no goodbye cause after every nightfall a new sun will rise!

(CHORUS)

Every life first the sun and the night falls,

We're all on borrowed time, I'll never say goodbye.

Take your time, Live your life likes it's last call.

Don't wanna see you cry, I'll never say goodbye.
