

La Bouche, Say You'll Be Mine

Verse1:

You've got everything I've been dreaming of,
And I will never get enough of your sweet love.
And now I need you boy, in my world.
You make all the dark clouds disappear,
You keep telling me all the words I always want to hear,
And now I need you boy, in my world.
Could it be magic, I found out what love can do.
Could it be magic, I'll do anything for you.

Chorus:

Say you'll be mine, until the end.
Say you could never lose your loving feeling in a million years.
Say you'll be mine, until the end.
Say you've been searching for a world of passion, and for sweet obsession all the time,
Say you'll be mine.

Verse2:

Take it as it is and picture this- I'm on fire and I shiver every time we kiss,
And now I need you boy, in my world.
Once you've had a tender touch of paradise, you wanna keep the pace,
You make me realise how much I need you boy, in my world.
Could it be magic, I found what love can do,
Could it be magic, I'd do anything for you.
