

La Mafia, Coming Home

Hello my love What's going on
I finally realized I can't live alone
I know this world was made for two
And God knows it was meant for me and you

I took the good, I took the bad
I realized that you were all I had
It takes a man to admit he's wrong
And I admit I've been wrong all along

Well ell ell
Goodnight my love
I'm coming home
It's nice to hear your voice
on the telephone

Well ell ell
Goodnight my love
I'm feeling fine
It's nice to take this pressure
off my mind

I took the good, I took the bad
I realized that you were all I had
It takes a man to admit he's wrong
And I admit I've been wrong all along

Well ell ell
Goodnight my love
I'm coming home
It's nice to hear your voice
on the telephone

Well ell ell
Goodnight my love
I'm feeling fine
Coming home takes the pressure of my mind
It's nice to take this pressure
off my mind

I'm glad that I'm finally coming home.
