

La Mafia, Fire In Your Eyes

I can look at you and see
By the way you're looking at me
After all these years
And all those tears we've cried
You've still got the fire in your eyes
You've got the fire in your eyes

I know it's been a long time
Call it fate or call it love
But you've been on my mind
You know I've never known the look of love and life
And just by looking at you
I know you're not saying goodbye

You've got the fire in your eyes
You've got the fire and it's burning bright for me
You've got the fire in your eyes
And it's burning for me
You've got the fire in your eyes

I'm not gonna lie to you
By telling you things that just aren't true
You know I'm not a man
Blind to a woman's desire
And just by looking at you
I can feel the fire

You've got the fire in your eyes
You've got the fire and it's burning bright for me
You've got the fire in your eyes
And it's burning for me
