

La Roux, Automatic Driver

In time will i understand it
we can fight till it's light doesn't mend it
do you still dream we're alright and we'll find it
what if I tell you lies
and demand it
and demand it

baby how many times
you're not listening right n my mind I know it's alright

but then you find you're lost in the fight and now you've brocken the love of your life or you're just blinded
