

Labwrk, Cool Wind

a twist and a turn
no way to fight
just to press on
and wait for the night

the fire on my skin
the demons within

and water that I taste
is just an oasis?

cool wind in the desert
it feels like ecstasy
when it comes it comes like rapture
a revolution in me

begging for relief
even when I know

mortality is a formality when the sand stings you know

I need the revolution
I need the revolution
