

Labwrk, Plugged And Fisted

All the lights are burning the world is out of order
Standing in the corner awaiting evolution
Hopless and Im running nothing on the inside
For seconds you have it forever you dont
For seconds you have it forever you dont
For something on the inside empty and pathetic

You've taken everything
You left nothing in me
Smashed broken vessel
I've been blown away

Plugged and fisted
Torn and twisted
Bound up tight
Plugged and fisted

You take it all and make it black

Smashed broken vessel
I've been blown away

Plugged and fisted
Torn and twisted
Bound up tight
Plugged and fisted
