

Lacuna Coil, I Don't Believe In Tomorrow

This might long my face is burning
I cannot keep it all long enough
I want to hide myself in something that's bigger than me
That I cannot control

I wanted you to help protect me
To keep me saved in my sanity
Confronting the evidence to run away from it
Just when I needed you more

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
Avenge what I know now
Cause I have no faith in you

I will rise from the ashes again
You can call me up
But I'm still the same
So don't even try to figure me out
It's too late

Oh, if I'm to complicated leave now
Cause I could easily be without you
I bury all the noise
Because I just fell like I'm trusting more

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
Avenge what I know now
Cause I have no faith in you

I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Avenge what I know now
Cause I have no faith in you
