

Lacuna Coil, Oxygen

Cut off the bullshit we're falling apart

Stop wasting my time

Fight

□

When I look for confrontation

You hesitate, run away□ □

Isolation like prison

Inner self to escape

□

Inhale

Ready to dive

□

Your oxygen is not enough to save me

Trapped in toxic waters I forgot to breathe □

I cave in as i'm leaving everything behind

I've been craving something I can't have

And you're wasting my time□

Let's get in this battle now

□

Then you seek for compensation□

But you've got nothing in trade

Annihilation of dreams and

Only yourself to blame

Let's break

□

Cut off your bullshit it's all said and done

You're too late

I'm pulling the plug

□

We're fading from the inside

It's an inner struggle

Fight

Ready to die

□

My breath is getting lighter

I float on crimson waters

□

In this everyday battle

Fight
