

Lady Antebellum, Long gone

Its so like you just to show up at my door
And act like nothings happened
You think Ill sweep my heart up off the floor
And give it to you
Like so many times before
Youre talking to a stranger
Im not that girl anymore

Chorus

That girl is long gone
Boy you missed the boat it just sailed away
Long gone
Shes not drowning in her yesterdays
Betcha never thought Id be that strong
Well this girl is long gone
Dont waste your breath with baby baby please
Cuz I am so not listening
Dont bother getting down upon your knees and try to beg me
Im tired of how you twist the truth
Youre not talking to the same girl
Who used to forgive you

Repeat Chorus

Gone like the wind under Supermans cape
Like a thief in the night I made the great escape
Im not the kind of girl that keeps making the same mistakes

Chorus

That girl is long gone
Boy you missed the boat it just sailed away
Long gone
Im not drowning in my yesterdays
Betcha never thought Id be that strong, betcha didnt
Yeah well baby I proved you wrong
This girl is long gone, long gone
This girl is long gone, long gone
This girl is long gone
This girl is gone
