

Lady GaGa, Future Love

Hello
Nice to meet you
You are very cute
Rubber man

I can't help myself
I'm in love
And when I get back from out of space
I'm gonna punch him in his face

If he's the moon
Then I'm eclipsed
I'm so lunar, yeah, when I get to him
I'll run him over with my rocket ship

My eyeliner runs in constellations
For you dear
If only I could reboot my mechanical heart
I'd think clear

Baby, I'm feeling so out of this world,
Baby, with you I'm a different girl
Ohhh, ohhh you're my future love

Baby, could we make a home in the stars
Baby, somewhere in a galaxy far
Ohh, ohh you're my future love

Ohhhh, I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
Would you be my fu-fu-fu-fu future love
I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
Would you be my fu-fu-fu future man
I wanna fu- fuck you as hard as I can
Would you be in my fu- future plans
i want a fu-fu-fu future man

I've been working in engineering
All our chemistries and our situations
Working out our sex equations,
And I know I'm no Nostradamus, yeah
'Cause my hair is blonde but my heart's brunette
If I'm not on you then at least I'm honest

My mascara runs in constellations
For you dear, my dear
If only I could outer- space my brain
For a minute
I'd think clear (I love you so much)

Baby, I'm feeling so out of this world
Baby, with you I'm a different girl
Ohhh, ohhh you're my future love

Baby, could we make a home in the stars
Baby, somewhere in a galaxy far
Ohh, ohh you're my future love

Ohhhh, I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
Would you be my fu-fu-fu-fu future love
I want your fu-fu-fu-fu future love
Would you be my fu-fu-fu future man
I wanna fu- fuck you as hard as I can

Would you be in my fu- future plans
i want a fu-fu-fu future man

If you could only take me in
To a place we've never been
He is so unreal, yeah! He's a mannequin
A synthetic, plastic, rubber man

And I'm relying on, on a shooting star
To get to you my future love, ah ah
He's my rubber hunk, my mechanic guy
And I'm stuck in his metal rubber ey-ey-ey-eyes!
Rubber ey-ey-ey-eyes! My future guy
