

Lady GaGa, I Wish You Were Here

It's funny how things, they change, the clouds they part, rearrange for me
Faces of strangers and I have no familiars to help me see
Where is home?
I want you to know
That I wish you were here
I wish you were here
Sometimes I wonder if God hides out in cities to set us free
Cuz yeah this room is crowded but I am so alone in it, help me please
Where is home?
I want you to know
That I wish you were here
I wish you were here
I wish you were here
And I will be strong
I won't give in
I won't deny you
I know where we've been
I am so much more
Than all of my fears
Than all of these tears
My tears, yeah
I wish you were here
I wish you were here
Where is home?
I want you to know
That I wish you were here
I wish you were here
