

Lady GaGa, Words

I won't break down today
Another brick's in my way of shadows
The promises they made
Regret themselves and say this is too hard
Yeah they say you grow when you don't succeed
But it's hard to breathe when no one believes in me
So let the sound bring me back
Sounds have no regrets
And before you know it
I'll take your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
Right to the start and be gone
Your words and be gone
I'll take your words and be gone
Whenever you're afraid
Or someone's far away, never give in
'Cuz happily, we'll reign
When consequences change, believe you can win
Yeah they say you grow when you don't succeed
But it's hard to breathe when no one believes in me
So let the sound bring me back
Sounds have no regrets
And before you know it
I'll take your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
I'll take your words and be gone
Right to the stars and be gone
Your words and be gone
I'll take your words and be gone
Let the sound bring me back
Sounds have no regrets
And before you know it
I'll take your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
Right to the stars and be gone
Your words and be gone
I'll take your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
Your words and be gone
I'll take your words and be gone
