

Lady Pank, Stranger

Sometimes I've just had enough
And I feel that life is kinda tough
Maybe I could work it out
But there's nothing that I care about
I'm just a stranger
I'm just a stranger here; no one near
I'm just a stranger
I'm just a stranger here; I live in fear
Sometimes someone says to me
You need love and maybe sympathy
Maybe I could find my way
But there's no one that I love today
I'm just a stranger
I'm just a stranger here; no one near
I'm just a stranger
I'm just a stranger here; I live in fear
