

Lagwagon, Billionaire

Breaking down in surround Alarms are deafening
Alone in immersion Drowning in the dream
Billions in the shadow Of one you won't deceive
All we know is failure All we have is us
How can I forgive you? For breaking our last trust
Billions of sincerities And one you will believe
You have to honor me You have to honor me
Our lives are incomplete Without our honesty Our honesty
Breaking down the numbers Eliminate the waste
Nothing's ever perfect Forget about disgrace
Fuck the purist. Fuck the tourist Fuck the bourgeoisie
You have to honor me I have to honor you
Our lives are incomplete Without our honesty
My life is incomplete Without our honesty Honesty
