

Lagwagon, Wind In Your Sail

It's negative
I wish you the worst dear to feel the greatest pain A positive
you say it's all in vain you know i felt
and i won't feel again
I know you..
hours of madness
years of dysfunction
the deepest embitterment
no will to strive or achieve
finally in breakdown
perpetual fall on your knees
as you crawl back to me... it ends like this
i can hope for bliss
if you fail again
cause i'm right here
to witness every step
and when you trip
i will cherish it
i live to watch you fail
i am the wind in your sail
to retrieve all you stole every tear
and everything you own
and i wish you
no will to trust anyone
this is how i live
this is how you left me blue
