

Laibach, Steel Trust

Lonely days
Eternal nights
Sweet words of youth
In paradise
Where only emptiness
Remains the same
I love you more and more in pain

Quiet dreams
In golden cage
Were sent to us
From different age
To tell the story
Of love and hate
I wish I'd never seen your face before

Sleepless nights
The city lies
Dark blue shadows
On the wall
All the pictures
In my mind
I love you more and more in vain

Good and evil
Death, despair
All these pictures
Everywhere

Love has come and love has gone
I was left here on my own
Now it seems so far away
I love you more and more again
Again
Again
Again
