

Lake Of Tears, Tears

A thousand tears, tears in my eyes
Tears from my heart, from down deep inside
For now you are to fly, to fly far away
Fly to heaven's land, to where the angels stay

And the night will even hide, hide those ravens that fly

Angel wings, takes you ashore
Angel heart, it opens the door
On your path, all evil has fled
Don't be afraid of what lies ahead
Angel wings, takes you away
To heaven, where the other angels stay
Tired wings, but still far to fly
To heaven, to paradise...

The empty sky, is dark this night
Besides one star, that seems to shine so bright
And soon my love, my dearest friend
In heaven's land, we shall meet again...

And the night will even hide, hide those ravens that fly

Angel wings, takes you ashore
Angel heart, it opens the door
On your path, all evil has fled
Don't be afraid of what lies ahead
Angel wings, takes you away
To heaven, where the other angels stay
Tired wings, but still far to fly
To heaven, to paradise...
