

Lake, Welcome To The West

Bring your mother your children your wife
And come to the west
Youll be welcome so take our advice
You know its the best
Lots of money to buy what you like
So stand in the line
Its gonna be fine
Here in the west

Come along you dont have to be bright
You eat what youre fed
We dont care if youre black or youre white
Dont want no reds
Easy living and work for yall
Its really a dream
Like nothing youve seen
Here in the west

Wake with the sunrise
Flow with the ebbtide
Long as youre happy were pleased
Never commotion
Just time and motion
Thats how we like it to be

Take your place on the factory floor
Youll soon get the hang
Now youre here our production should soar
The manager sang
Every Friday well give you some pay
Enough to survive
Well keep you alive
Here in the west

Movies and nightbars
Freeways amd fast cars
Air cooled apartments T.V.
