

Laleh, Step on you

I lost my bones tonight
Stepped on sharp stone tonight
See me loose my head
Not sleeping in my bed

I gave someone some air
But he took my breath and then I said
I said you got in now get out of here
I wont give you that permission again

They told me, dont be so shy
If youre so weak
They will try
They told me, dont be so shy
If you show youre week
They will try to step on you

I should be careful with every step I give in Be careful so all their reasons
aint my reason for living

I lost my sense tonight
Stepped on thin air tonight
I wont move an inch Mama says its ok to be a bitch, he hey ...
