

Lamb, Hearts And Flowers

Hearts and flowers
A picture of what a love should be
But when it comes
It's deeper than
The darkest sea

Sometimes I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts

Hearts and flowers
Those people that
Make up valentines
Forget the flesh
And blood of love
Like yours and mine

Sometimes I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts

Hearts and flowers
A candy coated fantasy
But in your soul I've found the one
My soul can see

Sometimes I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts
