Lamb, Hearts And Flowers

Hearts and flowers A picture of what a love should be But when it comes It's deeper than The darkest sea

Sometimes I'm so alone Even in your arms Like each of us Keeps a little wall Inside our hearts

Hearts and flowers Those people that Make up valentines Forget the flesh And blood of love Like yours and mine

Sometimes I'm so alone Even in your arms Like each of us Keeps a little wall Inside our hearts

Hearts and flowers A candy coated fantasy But in your soul I've found the one My soul can see

Sometimes I'm so alone Even in your arms Like each of us Keeps a little wall Inside our hearts
