

Lament, In Chains

Hold on my healed heart. I'm watching in her eyes.
Seems like a new start. But she looks like...
she thinks twice.

Forgotten words I spoke. Forgotten dreams came true. Today I'm walking in chains.
Last night... I was with you.

The world has turned! ...turned away from me!
HOLD ON! when she gets out of view... (I know it's cruel)

WHERE ARE THE STARS OF LAST NIGHT?
thought they've shown for us

But the world has turned! ...turned away from me!
HOLD ON! when she gets out of view... (I know it's cruel)

Is there a place for us? I ask you.
Just take my hand if there's a place where I can be your man.

Waiting hopefully, in pain
thought time has healed my wild-eyed heart
...guess that things won't change
...still waiting
...please...say "I LOVE YOU"
