

Lampshade, Because Trees Can Fly

Ive seen the dark side of the moon
Walked on frozen glass with bare feet
I sat and watched my
Heart grow old
As angels cry with loud loud tears

And I scream your name

I sit here waiting
Believe youll come by
Some day soon

And youll take my feet
In your hands
Breathe life in me again

Youve been on the dark
Side of my heart
Walked straight in with
Velvet feet
You sat and watched my
Heart grow old
And I cried out with
Loud loud tears

And I scream your name

You sit here waiting
For me to stop by some day soon
And youll take my feet in your hands
Breathe life in me again
