

Lance Miller, Beers Not Just For Breakfast Anymore

She always started her day with morning coffee.
Oh and I started mine with Miller Light.
I never once asked her to change her habit,
but she had no sense of humor about mine.

Chorus:

Now beers not just for breakfast any more.
It's three meals a day since she walked out the door.
It's morning, noon, and night since she left me high and dry.
No beers not just for breakfast any more.

Well happy hour for me is 24/7.
I'm glad that woman drove me to drink.
One day I know I'll get the chance to thank her,
When they put me in the alcohol of fame.

Chorus:

Cause beers not just for breakfast any more.
It's three meals a day since she walked out the door.
It's morning, noon, and night since she left me high and dry.
No beers not just for breakfast any more.

Bridge:

A midnight snack is a cold six pack in a cooler by my bed.
When I wake in a fog some hair of the dog helps to clear my head.

Chorus:

Cause beers not just for breakfast any more.
It's three meals a day since she walked out the door.
It's morning, noon, and night since she left me high and dry.
No beers not just for breakfast any more

A midnight snack, is a cold six pack in a cooler by my bed.
