Land of Tales, Keep Out

I am that man that man who hurt you who drove you crazy speaking about the truth I am that man and that man is me we share the same face and identity and I cant tell that man apart from me So I ask you to Keep out you are not strong enough you might think you can handle this thing you got Keep out I am warning you you don't know the things he's done and is going to do Keep out And you're that kind of lady who deserves to be left on her own without my bad company I am that man that man who loved you so but I'm not that man who couldn't let you go 'Cause I can tell you'll be ok without me So I ask you to Keep out you are not strong enough you might thing you can handle this thing you got Keep out I am warning you you don't know the things he's done and is going to do Keep out