

Land Of Talk, Got A Call

Got a call
The one I've been waiting for
In the middle of the night
Said I know what you do and know it's the same to you
Can't keep down a girl who loves music

In the darkness, dance to the dial tone
As I sing myself to sleep
The most beauty I've seen
Lives in a dream
Where we laugh and love to live for the little things

Not even if I could get you back, I don't try
You weren't all that good, but I loved you like you were mine
Is it only fate?
I'll keep it like a secret
Although it always rains, a billion hearts stop bleeding

It's alone, and no one knows how to feel
In a party all the time
Yeah, I know how it kills
But I hate how it feels
That everyone's in love with someone else

And even if I could get you back, I don't try
You weren't all that good, but I loved you like you were mine
Is it only fate?
I keep it like a secret
Although it always rains, a billion hearts stop bleeding
