

Landscape of souls, Still the Same

Forgotten world left in the background
Me still the same and not change
Although somebody always wants to change something
Wasting his time, precious time
Me still the same
The same
Still the same
The same
So many unnecessary lies to make you happy
Me still the same and not changed
(Anyway) I'll do what I want to and you won't stop me
Even though you're of a different opinion,
Y you are wrong again
There was fear and soldier's whip didn't help
Me still the same and not changed
For me it is something different that counts
For you it is only a joke like extorted cry
Still the same (x 6)
I won't change
And you won't change me
